Major General Robert C. Kingston
 Commandant, U.S. Army Institute for Military Assistance
 Fort Bragg, NC 28307

Dear General Kingston:

My colleagues and I are looking forward to having the members of the Foreign Area Officers Course and accompanying faculty and staff of the Institute for Military Assistance visit us at Langley on Thursday, 7 April, from 0900 to 1500 hours. I have heard only the most complimentary things about earlier visits here and know I will learn to value the goodwill that has developed between our two institutions. These exchanges are as profitable to us in enlarging our understanding of the many contributions of the military services in foreign affairs as they are to your officers in increasing their awareness of the role of intelligence.

Mrs. Turner and I appreciate your thoughtful invitation to the cocktail party at Fort McNair on 5 April but are not certain whether our increasingly complicated schedule will enable us to attend. It would be a delight for us to meet the Foreign Area Officers and the Institute faculty and staff. I especially hope to have the opportunity to meet with you and catch up on the work of the Institute.

If at all possible, I will participate in your briefing program here at Langley. Should other demands intervene, however, I am sure that one of my Deputies, Mr. Knoche or [redacted] in for me with their usual skill.
